Lizzie & Ruth are the course instructors for What The Pup.

Here's how it will go:

For the next four weeks, every Monday you will receive an email with videos and handouts. Your job is to watch the videos, read the handouts and start having fun with your puppy!

Online Facebook Group

The course comes with a Facebook group to join where you will be able to post videos and ask questions about anything that has gone out in the weekly emails.

The more you get involved with the facebook group the more you will get out of this course. So don't be scared!!

Questions Friday!! And fortnightly live Sunday!!!

On Friday a Q&A post will go up on the Facebook group!

Here you will be able to ask any questions that have popped up that week.

Every other Sunday rolls there will be a Facebook Live at 7pm covering different important topics. Don't worry if you miss it though, the Facebook live video will be saved in the group for you to rewatch back.

You will be sent a link to join the group once payment has been received.

Cost is £40 for 4 weeks
